Human Rights Watch calls on all countries around the world to suspend arms sales to Israel

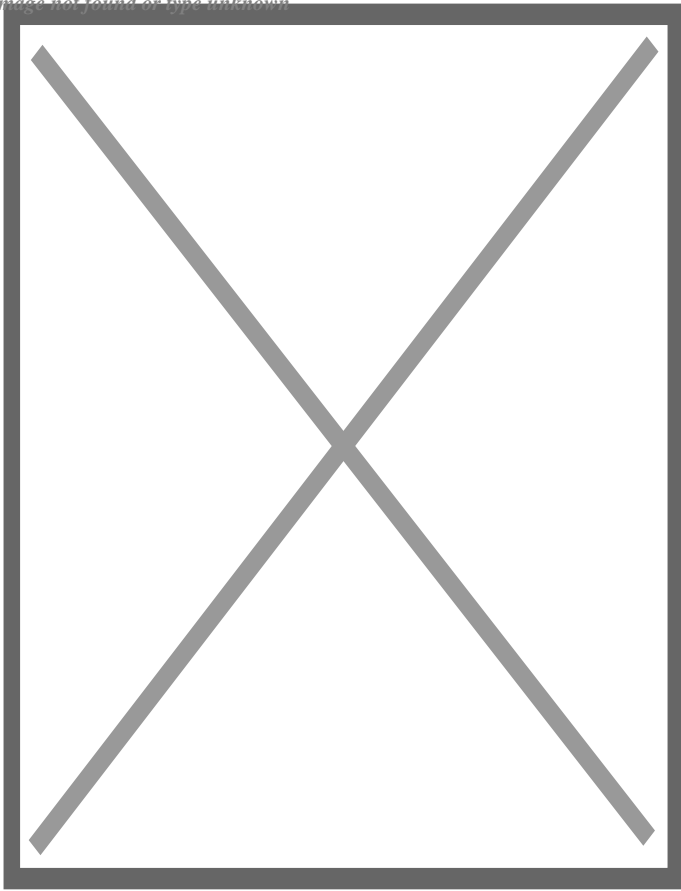

New York, November 1 (RHC)-- Human Rights Watch is calling on countries to suspend arms sales to Israel, accusing it of committing war crimes by attacking medical workers and healthcare facilities in Lebanon.

As of last week, Israel killed over 160 health and rescue workers across Lebanon and damaged over 150 ambulances and 55 hospitals.

Meanwhile, the U.N. Interim Force in Lebanon, UNIFIL, says its forces are continuing to come under attack.  Andrea Tenenti, with UNIFIL, said: "Since the 1st of October, UNIFIL has recorded over 30 incidents resulting in damage to U.N. property or premises or injury to peacekeepers.  About 20 of those, we could attribute to IDF fire or actions, with seven being clearly deliberate."
