Ramallah, November 6 (RHC)-- In the occupied West Bank, Israeli forces have killed at least eight Palestinians in a series of raids that began on Monday.

Two people were killed in the town of Tamoun, where Israeli troops were seen moving a body with an armored bulldozer.

Elsewhere, at least four people were killed in the city of Qabatiya near Jenin. During the raid, photojournalist Rabie Al-Munir was shot in the abdomen and rushed to a hospital where he's in stable condition.

Palestinian medics said a 3-year-old child was also hospitalized after being bitten by an Israeli attack dog.
