Gaza City, November 11 (RHC)-- Israel has killed at least four more Palestinian journalists in Gaza.

Mohammed Khreis and his wife died in an airstrike on their tent near the Nuseirat refugee camp. Ahmad and Zahra Abu Sakheil were killed in an Israeli airstrike targeting a school in al-Tuffah. And radio broadcaster Khaled Abu Zir was killed on Friday.

This comes as the United Nations-backed Famine Review Committee has issued a dire warning saying there is a “strong likelihood that famine is imminent in areas” of northern Gaza.
