

Trump selects right-wing representative Mike Waltz as National Security Adviser

Image not found or type unknown

"I know I look like a used car salesman, but I'm really a congressional representative from Florida. See the difference?"
?????

Washington, November 12 (RHC)-- Donald Trump has selected Florida Congressman Mike Waltz to serve as national security adviser. Waltz is a former Green Beret and active colonel in the U.S. Army National Guard who served multiple tours in Afghanistan.

Mike Waltz is known as a foreign policy hawk on China and Iran and supported Trump's efforts to overturn the 2020 election. Waltz regularly appears as a pundit on Fox News and has attacked the U.S. military for teaching critical race theory to officers.

[SOURCE: DEMOCRACY NOW]

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/369579-trump-selects-right-wing-representative-mike-waltz-as-national-security-adviser>

Radio Habana Cuba