

New legislation would grant Trump power to target non-profit organizations he doesn't like

Washington, November 12 (RHC)-- U.S. Congressional Republicans have proposed legislation to grant Trump sweeping powers to crush his political enemies.

The so-called Stop Terror-Financing and Tax Penalties on American Hostages Act would give the Treasury Department unilateral authority to revoke the tax-exempt status of any nonprofit deemed to be a "terrorist supporting organization."

[SOURCE: DEMOCRACY NOW]

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/369580-new-legislation-would-grant-trump-power-to-target-non-profit-organizations-he-doesnt-like>

Radio Habana Cuba