

Leaked records show Matt Gaetz sent $10,000 to two women who testified he paid them for sex

Washington, November 20 (RHC)-- ABC News is reporting the House Ethics Committee obtained records that appear to show Donald Trump's pick for attorney general, Matt Gaetz, sent over $10,000 to two women who claim he paid them for sex.

Matt Gaetz resigned his seat in Congress last week, putting an end to the House Ethics Committee probe. While House leaders are resisting calls to release the committee's findings, a hacker has reportedly gained access to the sealed testimony in the probe.
