

Venezuelan president says the Palestinian cause is the most just that humanity has today

The Venezuelan leader expressed solidarity with the peoples of the Middle East, victims of the Caracas, November 30 (RHC)-- Venezuelan President Nicolás Maduro affirmed this Friday that the Palestinian cause is the most just that humanity has today. He spoke at the International Conference in Solidarity with Palestine, which is taking place in Caracas.

"If the causes of struggles inherited from the last century are reviewed, in order to make a fair world, the Palestinian cause and its right to be an independent, full and fair State are pending. It is the cause that unites humanity," said the president.

The Venezuelan leader said that Israel's genocide in Palestine has been supported, financed and armed by the U.S. imperialist elites, with the complicity of Europe and the Latin American extreme right.

In this sense, he stressed that the president of Argentina, Javier Milei, has supported the Zionist aggression in the Gaza Strip and the genocide of the civilian population, mostly women and children.

"This will stain and mark him. When future generations talk about Milei, they will remember that he was the president who from Argentina supported the bombing and murder of children, girls, women, the elderly, thousands of innocent people," he said.

The Venezuelan dignitary expressed solidarity with the peoples of the Middle East, who are victims of attacks by the Zionist government of Israel, and warned Tel Aviv that humanity is watching its genocidal crimes.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/370950-venezuelan-president-says-the-palestinian-cause-is-the-most-just-that-humanity-has-today>

Radio Habana Cuba