

Cuban president receives CARICOM ambassadors

Havana, December 6 (RHC)-- The First Secretary of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of Cuba (PCC) and President of the Republic, Miguel Díaz-Canel received this Friday at the Palace of the Revolution, the ambassadors of the Caribbean Community (CARICOM) to celebrate the 52nd anniversary of the establishment of diplomatic relations between Cuba and Barbados, Guyana, Jamaica and Trinidad and Tobago (December 8).

"I reiterated our admiration and affection, and thanked them for their solidarity and support for the Cuban people," the president said from his X account.

Díaz-Canel confirmed to the 14 representatives of the sister Caribbean islands the Cuban government's willingness to continue expanding ties.

"The Caribbean can always count on the Cuban Revolution, and on the support, friendship and solidarity of our people," he assured them.

The head of state conveyed to them a hug from Army General Raúl Castro Ruz, an admirer of the dignity of the Caribbean brothers. (Source: ACN)
