

Trump says U.S. ownership of Greenland is an absolute necessity

Washington, December 24 (RHC)-- Donald Trump has posted a message online saying the United States should take ownership of Greenland, which is controlled by Denmark.

Trump wrote: "For purposes of National Security and Freedom throughout the World, the United States of America feels that the ownership and control of Greenland is an absolute necessity."

Trump's statement on Greenland was made as he announced he was picking PayPal co-founder Ken Howery as his pick for United States ambassador to Denmark.
