

Nicolás Maduro is sworn in as Constitutional President of Venezuela

In a sign of symbolism, the oath was taken on a copy of the Bolivarian Constitution signed by Commander Hugo Chávez. Photo: Screenshot

Caracas, January 11 (RHC)-- The president of the National Assembly, Jorge Rodríguez, swore in Nicolás Maduro Moros as president of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela on Friday, a ceremony that took place at the headquarters of the Legislative Palace.

The head of state was re-elected for the period 2025-2031 during the presidential elections of June 28, with 6,408,844 votes (about 52 percent of the votes).

In a sign of symbolism, the oath was taken on a copy of the Bolivarian Constitution signed by Commander Hugo Chávez. Jorge Rodríguez reaffirmed the sovereignty of the Venezuelan people.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/373871-nicolas-maduro-is-sworn-in-as-constitutional-president-of-venezuela>

Radio Habana Cuba