Gaza City, January 13 (RHC)-- A funeral was held for the Palestinian journalist Saed Abu Nabhan, who was shot dead by Israeli forces over the weekend. He was a freelance cameraman for the Anadolu news agency.

His colleague Mohammed Abu Namous told the crowd gathered for the funeral: "It is clear that the Israeli occupation wants to target the journalist body that exposes its crimes, while the occupation had utilized its media to say that they only target the resistance and their weapons, until the Palestinian journalists have exposed the truth to the world, saying that this occupation targets children, women and unarmed civilians."
