January 13: Axis of Resistance operations against Israeli occupation

By Press TV Website Staff

Amid the West-backed Israeli genocidal war on Gaza, which has killed nearly 46,600 Palestinians so far, resistance groups in Palestine and across the region continue their operations against the Tel Aviv regime and its Western backers.

The major operations by the resistance groups on Monday, January 13, are as follows:

Al-Qassam Brigades' operations on Jan. 13:

In a complex operation, raided a building where an Israeli infantry force of 25 soldiers was fortified, and targeted them with various weapons, killing or wounding all of them. Following the arrival of a rescue force, a minefield was detonated, hitting two troop carriers. The building remains engulfed in flames, and clashes continue in the Al-Najili area of Al-Shaboura camp in central Rafah city, southern Gaza Strip.

Al-Quds Brigades' operations on Jan. 13:

Targeted and destroyed an Israeli military vehicle in Beit Hanoun, northern Gaza Strip, with a pre-planted explosive device, killing and injuring its crew.

Captured an Israeli military reconnaissance drone of the "EVO Max" type during its surveillance mission over northern Gaza.

Engaged in fierce clashes with Israeli forces across multiple incursion areas in northern Gaza, directing heavy gunfire at enemy soldiers and their military vehicles.

Targeted a gathering of Israeli soldiers in the Al-Ein Refugee Camp, Nablus, occupied West Bank, with intense gunfire and explosives.

Struck Israeli military reinforcements in the Rafidia area of Nablus, occupied West Bank, heavily firing upon their vehicles.

Martyr Omar al-Qassem Forces' operations on Jan 13:

In coordination with the Al-Quds Brigades, the Martyr Omar al-Qassem Forces targeted an Israeli forces' supply line in the Netzarim corridor, south of Gaza City, with a barrage of mortar shells.

Yemeni military's operations on Jan. 13:

Targeted a critical Israeli military facility in the occupied area of Yaffa (Tel Aviv) using a Palestine 2 hypersonic ballistic missile.

Struck more strategic Israeli military sites in Yaffa (Tel Aviv) with a barrage of drones.
