January 15: Axis of Resistance operations against Israeli occupation

By Press TV Website Staff

Amid the West-backed Israeli genocidal war on Gaza, which has killed more than 46,600 Palestinians so far, resistance groups in Palestine and across the region continue their operations against the Tel Aviv regime and its Western backers.

The major operations by the resistance groups on Wednesday, January 15, are as follows:

Al-Quds Brigades' operations on Jan. 15:

In a joint operation with the Martyr Jihad Jibril Brigades, targeted the headquarters of the Israeli military's engineering unit along the so-called "Netzarim" axis.

In collaboration with the Mujahideen Brigades, attacked gatherings of Israeli soldiers near Al-Bukhari Mosque, east of Jabalia Camp in the northern Gaza Strip, using mortar shells.

Conducted raids in the areas of "Mazaya and Izbet Malin" in Jabalia Camp, northern Gaza Strip, and planted two anti-tank "Thaqib" explosives. Hours later, detonated the explosives on two Merkava vehicles.

Detonated several pre-planted high-explosive devices along the path of Israeli military jeeps in the mountain axis (Umm Al-Qasab) in Jenin, occupied West Bank.

Targeted and destroyed an Israeli military jeep carrying a sniper team and infantry forces in Jenin, occupied West Bank.

Yemeni military's operations on Jan. 15:

Targeted the American aircraft carrier USS Harry S. Truman and several of its accompanying warships in the northern Red Sea with cruise missiles and drones. This marks the sixth attack on the carrier since its arrival in the Red Sea.
