As of October 7, 2023, the date on which this new escalation of violence began in a conflict that has lasted more than 75 years, Israel has killed more than 46,800 Palestinians.

The Palestinian National Authority completed all the actions necessary to assume its obligations in that territory after the beginning of the truce between Israel and the Islamic Resistance Movement (Hamas), which will begin today.

The process to declare the ceasefire in Gaza took place after more than 15 months of the beginning of Israel's genocidal operation, which has caused more than 108,000 injuries in Gaza, in addition to more than 850 deaths in the West Bank and East Jerusalem.
