Havana, January 30 (RHC)-- Cuban President Miguel Diaz-Canel has condemned Washington's announcement of imprisoning thousands of migrants at U.S. naval base at Guantanamo.

On the social network X, Diaz-Canel wrote:

"In an act of brutality, the new U.S. government announces that it will imprison thousands of migrants at the Guantanamo Naval Base, located in illegally occupied #Cuba territory, and forcibly expel them, placing them next to the well-known prisons of torture and illegal detention."
