

Paramount could settle in 60 Minutes lawsuit as major networks bow to Trump

New York, January 31 (RHC)-- In the U.S., CBS's parent company Paramount Global is in settlement talks with Trump's legal team, which is suing the network for $10 billion under the Texas Deceptive Trade Practices Act.

Trump's lawsuit accuses CBS of deceptively editing a "60 Minutes" interview with Vice President Kamala Harris last year. The New York Times reports controlling shareholder Shari Redstone is pushing for a deal with Trump, and Paramount executives reportedly believe settling the lawsuit would increase their odds of securing a planned $8 billion merger with Skydance Media.

[SOURCE: DEMOCRACY NOW]

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/375526-paramount-could-settle-in-60-minutes-lawsuit-as-major-networks-bow-to-trump>

Radio Habana Cuba