

Cuba denounces financing of terrorist groups in Venezuela

Photo: @BrunoRguezP

Havana, February 8 (RHC) -- The Minister of Foreign Affairs of Cuba, Bruno Rodríguez, denounced today the financing of terrorist groups in the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela.

"We denounce the organization, financing and operations of terrorist groups in Venezuela that seek to destroy the Bolivarian and Chavista Revolution and attack its leaders" stated the foreign minister on the social network X.

"We invite to respect the right to peace and self-determination of the Venezuelan people," affirmed the head of Cuban diplomacy.

This Friday, the Minister of Interior, Justice and Peace of Venezuela, Diosdado Cabello, revealed that leaders of the Venezuelan ultra-right had the support of U.S. officials to steal more than 32 billion dollars.

For his part, Attorney General Tarek William Saab stated that during the violent actions of July 29 and 30 of last year, 28 people were killed, 195 were injured, of which 98 were civilians and 97 were police and military officials, and 468 properties were vandalized.

The minister also revealed the existence of international campaigns "to try to whitewash terrorist groups" that caused serious damage to schools, health centers, public agency headquarters and businesses of private entrepreneurs.

[SOURCE: PRENSA LATINA]

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/nacionales/376132-cuba-denounces-financing-of-terrorist-groups-in-venezuela>

Radio Habana Cuba