

Israeli forces raid East Jerusalem bookseller and seize books critical of Zionist occupation

East Jerusalem, February 12 (RHC)-- In occupied East Jerusalem, Israeli forces raided two locations of the Educational Bookshop, a beloved cultural hub that was established more than four decades ago.

Israeli soldiers detained Palestinian owners Ahmad and Mahmoud Muna and seized hundreds of books on Palestine, including an English-language coloring book for children titled "From the River to the Sea" and “Gaza in Crisis” by Noam Chomsky and Israeli scholar Ilan Pappé.
