

Israeli minister calls for forcible mass expulsion of Palestinians from Gaza

Tel Aviv, February 20 (RHC)-- Israeli far-right Communications Minister Shlomo Karhi says that Israel's campaign to permanently expel Palestinians from Gaza will rely on force rather than so-called voluntary migration.

His comments contradicted these claims made just two days earlier by Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu in Jerusalem.

Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu: "Why not give Gazans a choice? Everybody said this is the largest open-air prison in the world. ... Not forcible eviction, not ethnic cleansing. In a war zone, people leave."

[SOURCE: DEMOCRACY NOW]

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/376961-israeli-minister-calls-for-forcible-mass-expulsion-of-palestinians-from-gaza>

Radio Habana Cuba