

Israel steps up West Bank attacks; Gaza children die of hypothermia

Ramallah, February 25 (RHC)-- At least six children have died overnight in Gaza because of the cold weather and lack of heating as Israel continues to largely restrict the entry of tents and mobile homes into the Palestinian territory.

Tens of thousands of Palestinians across the Strip are living among the rubble of their destroyed homes, with strong winds and heavy rains turning makeshift shelters into barely liveable spaces.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/377399-israel-steps-up-west-bank-attacks-gaza-children-die-of-hypothermia>

Radio Habana Cuba