

Elon Musk calls on Trump to pardon ex-cop Derek Chauvin, who murdered George Floyd

Washington, March 6 (RHC)-- Elon Musk has joined calls for President Trump to pardon ex-Minneapolis police officer Derek Chauvin, who was convicted of murdering George Floyd in 2020.

A Trump pardon would end Chauvin's 20-year sentence on federal convictions for violating Floyd's civil rights, but Trump does not have the power to commute Chauvin's 22.5-year sentence on state murder charges.
