

Trump considers travel ban targeting citizens of up to 43 nations

Citizens from Cuba are at the top of the list of those who will be prohibited from entering the United States

Washington, March 17 (RHC)-- The New York Times reports the Trump administration could target citizens from up to 43 countries with new travel restrictions that would be broader than those imposed during Trump's first term.

A draft list includes 11 countries whose citizens would be flatly barred from U.S. entry: Afghanistan, Bhutan, Cuba, Iran, Libya, North Korea, Somalia, Sudan, Syria, Venezuela and Yemen.
