

U.S. judge blocks ICE from deporting activist Jeanette Vizguerra

Denver, March 25 (RHC)-- In the U.S., a federal judge has blocked Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) from deporting Jeanette Vizguerra, a well-known immigrant rights activist and mother of four, who was detained in Denver last week.

U.S. Judge Nina Wang's order also prevents federal authorities from transferring Vizguerra out of Colorado and gave the government a deadline of today to demonstrate why Vizguerra should not be released.
