

Report Says Ebola Countries Lose More to Tax Dodging Than Health Budgets

Freetown, November 13 (RHC)-- A new report says the three Ebola-stricken countries have lost more money to corporate tax dodging than they spend on public health.

According to ActionAid, Liberia, Sierra Leone and Guinea "lost an estimated $287.6 million through corporate tax dodging in 2011 while spending just $237 million on health care.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/39139-report-says-ebola-countries-lose-more-to-tax-dodging-than-health-budgets>

Radio Habana Cuba