

British Royal Navy Frigate to Call at Havana Harbor on Sunday

Havana, November 29 (RHC) British Royal Navy's HMS Argyll frigate will call at Havana harbor for an official visit to this city Sunday, November 30, the Cuban Ministry of the Armed Forces announced.

During their stay in Havana, the British sailors will pay a courtesy visit to the Chief of the Cuban Revolutionary Navy, the Presidency of the Cuban Parliament and they will also tour places of cultural and historic interest.

The British warship will be welcomed with a 21-gun salute by an artillery battery of the Cuban Revolutionary Armed Forces and while docked at the harbor on Sunday, the frigate will be open to the public.
