

Alumni Letter Calls for Israelis to Boycott Military Service

Tel Aviv, January 2 (RHC)-- More than 50 alumni, former educators and staff of the prestigious Israel Arts and Sciences Academy in Jerusalem have issued a call for graduates to refuse service in the Israeli military.

Such service is mandatory in Israel, and those who refuse may face jail. The letter calls military refusal a "moral stance against a collective mood manifested in racism and violence on every street these days."

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/42446-alumni-letter-calls-for-israelis-to-boycott-military-service>

Radio Habana Cuba