

Havana's Largest Hotel Under New Management

Havana, January 10 (RHC) – The largest hotel in Cuba's capital is under new management. 'Memories' has taken over management at the former Occidental Miramar Havana.

The 427-room hotel is now the first “city” hotel in the portfolio of Memories, which is an affiliate of Canada's Sunwing. Canada is the largest source market for tourists to Cuba.

The property includes two restaurants and a snack bar along with two bars. The hotel's event space also includes space for up to 200 guests, according to Memories.

The hotel is located in the Miramar residential section of Havana.
