Ernest Hemingway Marling Fishing Tournament in May

The Ernest Hemingway International Marlin Fishing Tournament, which promises in its 65th edition to break records of attendance, will be held from May 25th to the 30th in Havana.

Carlos Garcia, president of the Business Group of Nautical Clubs and Marinas, Marlin S.A., recalled that, boosted in 1950 by the famous U.S. novelist, the Hemingway is one of the 3 oldest tournaments in the world, which therefore makes Cuba stand out as an attractive destination for nautical tourism.

He said that over the last decade the competition has received crews from more than 30 nations, among them the United States with 23 teams, Russia 16, Cuba, United Kingdom, Italy and France with 15 each, and Spain with 14.

Commodore Jose Miguel Diaz, of Cuba's Hemingway International Nautical Club, said that so far they have received dozens of requests from around the World to participate in the Tournament, particularly from the U.S. nautical community.

If their government authorizes it, the attendance of U.S. fishers this year will break the historic records of 1979 (80 ships) and 1999 (50), predicted Diaz.

The president of the Cuban Fishers Federation, Ramon Cusa, informed that the competition will include 2 modalities: trolling and tag and release, in order not to harm the species during the catch.

Badminton

Cuban Osleni Guerrero reached his highest ever position in the badminton world ranking when appearing 43rd of that list, according to the latest update of the International Federation of the discipline.

Guerrero, with 29 030 points, remains as leader in the Americas, followed by American Howard Shu, who is ranked 57th, with 25 991 units, while Guatemalan Kevin Cordon in the 64th appears 3rd among the most prominent of the American continent with a score of 24 257.

That event --granting 2 500 points for the world list--, runs from February 19th to 22nd; however, the Cuban athlete will develop a training base before.

In 2014, the 25-year-old player won the title at the Pan-American Championships in Canada, as well as the awards in the International Tournaments of Venezuela and Peru, and finished 3rd in the Brazil Grand Prix and at "La Giralilla" of Havana.

He also won the silver medal in the Central American and Caribbean Men's Singles event and the gold medal with Taimara Oropeza in mixed doubles.

Previously, as best historical position in the world ranking, Guerrero was in 49th seat in November 2013.
