

Spain has been hit by a wave of anti-austerity demonstrations and strikes since the country's economy fell into recession in 2008. Spaniards are angry at the government's austerity cuts, arguing that such measures have resulted in many economic difficulties over the past years.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/47995-thousands-of-students-protest-government-reforms-in-spain>

Radio Habana Cuba