

Preparations for Israeli Apartheid Week in Over 200 Cities

Johannesburg, March 2 (RHC)-- Tens of cities across the globe are holding events to mark the 11th Israeli Apartheid Week (IAW) in a bid to raise awareness on Tel Aviv's atrocities against Palestinians.

The Apartheid Week is a series of annual international events including rallies, lectures, cultural performances, film screenings, multimedia displays along with activities related to the growing Boycott, Divestment, and Sanctions (BDS) campaign against Israel.
