

Cuban Attorney General Visits China

Beijing, March 17 (RHC) – Cuban Attorney General Dario Delgado is paying an official visit to China on the invitation of his counterpart Cao Jianming.

Delgado and his delegation held official talks with Jianming and other high-level officials with the Chinese Attorney General's Office, according to PL news agency.

The two attorneys stressed the significance of maintaining direct contacts and recalled the long-standing links of friendship and cooperation between their nations, which mark the 55th anniversary of the establishment of full diplomatic relations this year.
