

Russian President Hits Back at Health Rumors

ST. PETERSBURG, March 16 (RHC) -- Russian President Vladimir Putin on Monday dismissed rumors of his poor health at a meeting with Kyrgyz President Almazbek Atambayev in St. Petersburg, saying "life would be boring without gossip."

After the unexplained postponement of three-way talks between Russia, Kazakhstan and Belarus on Friday, speculations over Putin's health went wild in western media over the weekend.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/49641-russian-president-hits-back-at-health-rumors>

Radio Habana Cuba