

Talks on Yemen's Political Crisis to Be Held in Qatar

United Nations, March 25 (RHC)-- The United Nations says it will broker talks in Qatar aimed at preventing Yemen from dissolving into a full-scale civil war. The country appears on the brink of collapse amid fierce clashes between Shiite Houthi rebels and military units loyal to President Abdu Rabbu Mansour Hadi.

Saudi Arabia, meanwhile, has vowed to take "necessary measures" against the Houthis if a deal is not reached.
