

Kuwait holds donor conference for Syrian crisis

KUWAIT CITY, March 31 (RHC-Xinhua) -- The third edition of international donors' conference for Syria opened Tuesday in Kuwait City, with the UN appealing for 8.4 billion U.S. dollars to fund aid programs in 2015.

Speaking at the conference, UN Secretary General Ban Ki-moon said the Syrian crisis is the "worst humanitarian crisis of our time. The Syrians are not asking for sympathy, they are asking for help."
