

Vietnam, Russia vow to strengthen ties

HANOI, April 6 (Xinhua) -- Russian Prime Minister Dmitry Medvedev and Vietnamese high-ranking leaders on Monday vowed to further strengthen the comprehensive strategic partnership between the two countries.

The Russian PM is paying an official visit to Vietnam from Sunday to Tuesday. On Monday, he held talks with his Vietnamese counterpart Nguyen Tan Dung and met with Vietnamese President Truong Tan Sang, Chairman of Vietnam's National Assembly (NA) Nguyen Sinh Hung and General Secretary of the Communist Party of Vietnam Nguyen Phu Trong.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/51763-vietnam-russia-vow-to-strengthen-ties>

Radio Habana Cuba