

Vietnam's Ceramic Producer Viglacera to Open Cuba Subsidiary

Hanoi, April 23 (RHC) — Vietnam's state-owned building material firm Viglacera Corporation is planning to establish a joint venture in Cuba, which will focus on producing ceramic bricks, company executives recently revealed.

Widely known as a manufacturer of ceramic and stone floor tiles, bricks, glass and toilet accessories, Viglacera also invests in real estate, which is seen as its second key operation.
