

Cuban Anti-Terrorist Fernando González Meets with Finnish Lawmakers

Havana, April 25 (RHC)-- Hero of the Republic of Cuba, Fernando González, is currently in Finland, where he met at the Parliament headquarters with a group of legislators led by the former President of the Finland-Cuba Parliamentary Friendship Group, Aino-Kaisa Pekonen.

González, who is also the vice president of the Cuban Institute of Friendship with the Peoples (ICAP), briefed the participating Finnish lawmakers about Cuba's reality and the new rapprochement between Washington and Havana.

Aino-Kaisa, who also serves as the vice president of The Left Alliance Party, and other members of the Finnish parliament committed themselves to continuing their support for Cuba against Washington's blockade policy.
