

International Solidarity Meeting with Cuba to Be Held

Havana, May 1 (PL) -- More than 1,000 workers and trade union activists from all the continents of the world will take part in an International Solidarity Meeting with Cuba on May 2nd as part of the activities for the International Workers' Day.

Ernesto Freire, head of the Department of International Relations of the Confederation of Cuban Workers (CTC), said this event -- which has taken place for ten years -- will be special, given the attendance this time of the Cuban Five.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/nacionales/54557-international-solidarity-meeting-with-cuba-to-be-held>

Radio Habana Cuba