

Six Baltimore Officers Charged in Freddie Gray Death

Baltimore, May 2 (RHC)-- In the U.S. city of Baltimore, a total of six police officers have been charged in the high-profile death of African-American Freddie Gray whose spine was nearly severed while under police custody.

State's Attorney Marilyn Mosby told reporters on Friday that her office's investigation determined that Gray's death was a homicide, adding that his arrest was illegal and his treatment in custody amounted to murder and manslaughter.
