

Top Leaders from Serbia and Angola Arrive in Cuba

Havana, May 16 (RHC) -- The Vice President of Angola, Manuel Domingos Vicente, is set to arrive in Cuba on Sunday for an official visit.

The Angolan government official is scheduled to hold talks with his Cuban counterpart, Miguel Diaz Canel, as well as other political figures.

Meanwhile, in another high profile visit, Serbian President Tomislav Nikolic will arrive in Cuba on Monday, May 18.

During his stay in Havana, Nikolic will hold official talks with Cuban President Raul Castro and will participate in other events.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/nacionales/56177-top-leaders-from-serbia-and-angola-arrive-in-cuba>

Radio Habana Cuba