

Israel Cancels Bus Segregation Plan for Palestinians Returning to West Bank

Tel Aviv, May 21 (RHC)-- Israel has cancelled an order to bar West Bank Palestinians from riding on the same buses as Israelis. The segregation would have applied to the hundreds of Palestinians who cross into Israel each day for work and then return home.

The Israeli Defense Ministry had introduced it as a three-month pilot project to address the demands of Israeli settlers. But Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu abruptly cancelled it following an outcry.
