

Cuba and Russia Strengthen Scientific Cooperation

Moscow, June 6 (RHC)-- Russian and Cuban authorities will sign a new cooperation agreement in the field of sciences in September, aimed at strengthening bilateral links.

The announcement was made during a meeting in Moscow between Cuban Minister of Science, Technology and the Environment Elba Rosa Pérez and Russia's Education Minister Dmitri Livanov.

The meeting was in the framework of the 7th International Forum 'ATOM Expo 2015,' which was inaugurated Friday in the Russian capital.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/nacionales/58511-cuba-and-russia-strengthen-scientific-cooperation>

Radio Habana Cuba