

International Conference on Communications Policies and Technologies Continues in Havana

Havana, June 6 (RHC)-- The International Conference entitled 'New Communications Scenarios in the Digital Era 2015,' is holding sessions in Havana with debates focused on cyber-security and Internet governance.

During Saturday's session, delegates from over 30 countries are also discussing cyber-espionage and cyber-war as practices that violate the countries' sovereignty, international law and cooperation.

Participants at the event are also discussing the impact of information and communications technologies on developing countries, shared Internet resources and network neutrality.
