

Slovakian Deputy Premier to Visit Cuba in July

Bratislava, June 26 (RHC) — The Deputy Prime Minister and Foreign Minister of Slovakia, Miroslav Lajčák, is slated to pay a visit to Cuba between next July 21-23.

During a preparatory meeting with Cuban ambassador in Bratislava, Loipa Sánchez Lorenzo, Lajčák said his upcoming visit seeks to promote the advance of political and economic relations between Cuba and Slovakia and also support the ongoing process of political dialogue between the European Union and Cuba.
