

Cuban Five kick off visit to Angola

Luanda, July 6, (RHC), – The five Cuban anti-terrorist fighters who were unjustly imprisoned in the United States, arrived in Angola on Monday, where they will stay until July 8th, at the invitation of the ruling People's Liberation Movement.

Upon their arrival in Luanda, Gerardo Hernandez, Ramon Labañino, Antonio Guerrero, Rene Gonzalez and Fernando Gonzalez were welcomed by General Armando da Cruz Neto, member of the Political Bureau of the ruling party.

The Five, as they are known internationally, during their stay will fulfill an intense program of activities, including a tribute to Cuban internationalist combatants who fell in Angola, and meetings with political leaders of that nation.
