

West increases pressure on Iran in nuclear talks

Vienna, July 6, (RHC), – Time is running out on closing a deal with Iran over curbing its nuclear programme in return for sanctions relief.

The deadline is Tuesday and talks in Vienna between Tehran and six world powers are have moved a lot further, according to experts, but there are tough issues that have not been still resolved.

Iran says its working hard but that some things just aren't clear such as when UN sanctions will be lifted. Several reports coincide that in order to resolve the outstanding issues the talks may have to be extended.
