Rio de Janeiro, July 7, (RHC), – President Dilma Rousseff presented the Olympic torch for the 2016 Summer Games in Rio de Janeiro on Friday and the route it will follow around the continent-sized South American country.

The sleek, white torch, which features undulating blue and green lines -- flowing rivers in the colors of the sea, sky and land -- was unveiled in Brasilia at a ceremony attended by Rio 2016 President Carlos Arthur Nuzman and leading sporting figures.
