

Ron Paul praises reestablishment of US-Cuba relations

Washington, July 7, (RHC), – Former US congressman, Ron Paul on Monday urged the government of the United States to give up any meddling in Cuban affairs, if it really seeks to normalize relations with the Caribbean island.

In an article published in his personal website, Paul praised the Obama administrations for re-establishing diplomatic relations with Cuba, and the official opening of embassies in Havana and Washington.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/nacionales/61717-ron-paul-praises-reestablishment-of-us-cuba-relations>

Radio Habana Cuba