

New Solidarity with Cuba Committee Formed in Colombia

Bogotá, July 13 (RHC) — The movement of solidarity with Cuba in Colombia continues to strengthen with the creation of a new solidarity committee to unite activists in Cudinamarca province.

Wilmar Muñoz, president of the new committee, said they hope to coalesce efforts to support Cuba's fight against the U.S. economic blockade. The main offices of the new group will be located in Facatativá, some 36 km from the Colombian capital, Bogotá.
