

Houston to Havana Flights Announced

Houston, July 17 (RHC) -- Havana Air, a private airline, will offer non-stop service from George Bush Intercontinental Airport in Houston, Texas, to Havana, Cuba, beginning in August.

The Miami-based charter will offer the flights, leaving weekly on Wednesdays, with its direct air carrier partner Eastern Air Lines Group. Passengers will fly on the Eastern Air Lines Boeing 737-800 aircraft.

Havana Air already offers service to Havana from Miami and Key West, as well as flights from Miami to Camaguey and Santa Clara.
